I am having the same issue as well when I close the lid. Tried reinstalling Windows even. Still the issue persists. tried contacting Microsoft and ASUS customer support. Asus service guy came, checked my brand new ROG GL552JX and said the issue will be fixed after a mother board replacement. Anyone please help. This issue is making me go insane. I cant use the Sleep functionality anymore. Hey Mark, I am having the same issue as well when I close the lid. Tried reinstalling Windows even. With Crescendo Management Tool it is possible to configure One-Time-Password slots and manage key pairs and their associated X.509 certificates in the PKI slots. The tool can also be used to manage the PIN for the devices. HID Crescendo Management Tool provides a simplified way to quickly manage your HID Crescendo devices, including the High Assurance Crescendo C2300 hybrid smart card and the USB- and NFC-enabled HID Crescendo Key Series. Crescendo Management Tool is simple to deploy and allows users of Microsoft Windows desktop and server operating systems to quickly configure Crescendo devices for use without the need for central administration or remote management. With a few easy steps, and without IT help-desk assistance, users can: 1) Identify an inserted device by product name, image, and device serial number 2) Configure a device with One-Time Password options, certificates, PIN, and Management Keys 3) Generate HOTP and TOTP passwords for highly secure transactions
